National Chiao Tung University, Taiwan

展望 21 世紀華語電影：台灣論壇

博士生論文發表會徵稿

Funded by a Leverhulme Trust International Network grant, the research project “Chinese Cinemas in the 21st Century: Production, Consumption, Imagination” would like to invite PhD students based in Taiwan, Hong Kong, and Macau to the final symposium and postgraduate workshop to be held at National Chiao Tung University, Taiwan from 16th to 18th December, 2013. This project is led by Dr Song Hwee LIM (University of Exeter), and the keynote speaker for the symposium is Professor David Der-wei Wang (Harvard University). More information about the Network can be found at: <http://chinesecinemas.exeter.ac.uk/>.

We invite PhD students working on any area of film studies, most preferably Chinese cinemas, to attend the symposium and to present their dissertation outline or a chapter summary at a day of workshop where the project’s Network Partners will serve as discussants to provide feedback. Please send a 250-word abstract, institutional affiliation and nationality in the first instance to the Network Facilitator Dr Catherine Cummings at C.Cummings@exeter.ac.uk by 15th October 2013. Selected participants will be informed by the Network Facilitator by 31st October 2013, and they will be required to submit a detailed outline or chapter of no more than 15 pages (Times New Roman font size 12, double-spaced) by 22nd November 2013. Up to 12 selected participants will be granted sponsorships, which include four nights’ accommodation, travel expenses and meals. Unfortunately we cannot assist with any matters relating to visa applications.

The symposium and the postgraduate workshop will be conducted in English.
Please direct all enquires to the Network Facilitator Dr Catherine Cummings.

These events are co-organised by Dr. Kien Ket Lim at National Chiao Tung University, and co-sponsored by the Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange and the National Science Council, Taiwan, R.O.C.
